

PORTRAITS OF COURAGE

NOW THROUGH FEBRUARY 17th, 2020 @ HISTORY COLORADO

Sharing the Legacy and "Go For Broke" Spirit of Japanese American Veterans from WWII through an intimate collection of portraits from L.A. based photographer Shane Sato and stories collected by oral historian Robert Horsting

COURAGE + VALOR

CELEBRATING, HONORING, AND LEARNING
FROM OUR VETERANS

JANUARY 18TH

1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

4TH FLOOR, HISTORY COLORADO

Featuring a special presentation by news reporter and documentary filmmaker David Ono (co-anchor of ABC 7 Eyewitness News in Los Angeles) about the Lost Battalion rescued by the all Japanese American 442nd Regimental Combat Team during WWII, followed by a Q&A session with Portraits of Courage photographer Shane Sato and oral historian Robert Horsting alongside Japanese American WWII Veterans.

Join us for an afternoon of sharing, celebration, and insight into Japanese American veteran experiences and their contributions during WWII

Events are free and open to the public! RSVP's are strongly encouraged.

STORIES OF COURAGE

A NIGHT OF SHARING FROM LOCAL
MUSICIANS, ARTISTS, POETS, AND MORE

JANUARY 19TH

5:00 PM - 8:00 PM

COLORADO ROOM, HISTORY COLORADO

Colorado artists, including vocalists, singer-songwriters, MC's, illustrators, and more reflect on Veteran stories featured in Portraits of Courage with the sharing of their individual experiences, and Shane Sato shares insights into WWII JA Veteran photos and stories from his own personal journey.

Participate in art-making and crane folding to contribute to Tsuru for Solidarity's 250,000 cranes heading to D.C. in June of 2020, learn about local organizations supporting the communities we live in, and share your own stories of courage to be incorporated into the museum's exhibition!
